

PBS history within the world industry events

1814
The textile & engineering plant established by Jan Reiff in Slapanice, Brno

1824
First-ever steam turbine of own design manufactured

1838
The production plant re-allocated to Brno

1945
The factory destroyed in 2nd world war bombing. The nationalization follows

1950
New factory built in Velka Bites

2013
First flight of PBS turboprop engine

1800

1765
Steam engine invented by James Watt

1804
The first steam locomotive railway journey in Great Britain

1851
The first sewing machine patented by Singer

1859
Škoda is being emerged in Pilsen

1847
Siemens established in Berlin

1871
ČKD formed in Prague

1881
The first hydroelectric power station built in Great Britain

1882
The first steam power station put into operation in New York

1883
Asea (now ABB) founded in Sweden

1892
General Electric established in New York

1906
Production of the first turbine of own design

1929
PBS logo is being registered, still being used

1900

1903
The first airplane invented by Wright brothers

1907
Ford model T introduced

1969
Start of precision casting

2003
Development of the first jet engine finished

2000

2015
Flight tests of PBS turboshaft engine helicopter

2018
Two new jet engines introduced within one year

2014
PBS GROUP established

